How To Host a Vote Together 2014 Pledge Drive

WHERE TO GO

Get involved with local community events and activities in your area where others might be interested in learning about Women AdvaNce. Ask for permission to set up an information table about Vote Together 2014, offering pledge cards to other women in attendance. Invite a few friends to join you for the pledge drive.

WHAT TO BRING

- Ink pens and a writing surface (clipboard, card table)
- Printed copies of the Vote Together 2014 pledge card
- Printed copies of the What Is Women AdvaNce info sheet

WHAT TO SAY

- 1. Begin by asking, “Have you heard about Women AdvaNce?”
Offer each woman you meet a copy of the “What Is Women AdvaNce” info sheet. Explain that Women AdvaNce is a non-partisan organization, working to build a statewide community of women who care about public education, healthcare access, and jobs in North Carolina.
- 2. Next, ask, “Would you like to join the Vote Together effort?” Explain that Women AdvaNce is rallying the women’s vote in 2014 because women are 54% of voters in North Carolina. We have the numbers to create progress in our state. Let them know they will receive reminders to vote as well as important information about issues affecting women and families in North Carolina.
- 3. Collect pledge cards from those who wish to participate. Thank them for prioritizing progress in 2014.
- 4. Encourage everyone to find Vote Together pledge cards on-line. Some women may prefer to check out our website before submitting a pledge card. Let them know that all Vote Together pledge materials can be found on our website.
- 5. Invite every woman to keep a copy of the “What Is Women AdvaNce” info sheet. Encourage everyone to take a look at our website and follow Women AdvaNce on social media. Ask them to let their friends and family know about this new statewide organization.
- 6. After your pledge drive, mail completed pledge cards to Women AdvaNce. You can mail them back in one envelope or scan them individually and send them via e-mail. Addresses for Women AdvaNce are at the bottom of each pledge card.

Thanks for helping NC women get connected!
